Toronto couple victims of highway accident

The fatal collision of a car and a tractor-trailer Wednesday morning on Highway 121 is reported by Coboconk OPP to have claimed the lives of Elgin R. Bate, age 76, and his wife Mary Christina, age 78, of 25 Birdsall Avenue, Toronto. Elgin Bate was a brother of Harriett Bate of Lindsay.

Both of the deceased were occupants of a car driven by Mr Bate, which was travelling north on the road from Long Beach that joins Highway 121 just a short distance east of Powles Corners.

The unfortunate mishap occurred as the northbound Bate vehicle was in collision at the intersection of the roadway and Highway 121 with an eastbound truck, owned and operated by Floyd Earl Dovell, age 56, of Gooderham.

Provincial Constable Tom Coffey from the Coboconk detachment investigated the 10:30 a.m. fatal mishap which left the Bates vehicle with damage estimated at $1,000 and the tractor-trailer with an estimated $10,000 damage.

The $10,000 damage to the truck is estimated due to the tractor having jackknifed into the front of the trailer, breaking the radiator, the bumper shifted and possible frame bending resulted. The impact of the collision is reported to have carried the Bate car some 40 feet down the road and left it considered as a probable write-off.

Both deceased persons are believed to have been killed instantly and were pronounced dead at the scene by Coroner Dr. R.E. Jamieson of Coboconk. Dovell was fortunate to escape the mishap uninjured. It is reported that seat belts were not in use by any of the parties involved.

When the Haliburton Rotary Carnival parade comes down the main street next Wednesday night the Haliburton Highland Majorettes will be right there in the parade stepping it off to the music of the many bands that will be present. The monster parade will leave the Community Ball Park at 7:00 p.m. so be sure to be on hand. Photo by Dal Hubbert.

32nd Annual Haliburton Rotary Carnival

The 32nd Annual Haliburton Rotary Carnival to be held at Haliburton next Wednesday, August 6th, promises to be by far the greatest carnival in the local Rotary Club's history. This year there will be plenty to do and see from noon until it closes around midnight. The Rotary Club of Haliburton have gone to a great deal of work and expense to bring in added attractions for this year's big event.

This annual event which last year attracted around 18000 people, is by far the largest and finest attraction of its kind in Haliburton County and the local Rotary Carnival has one of the best parades in Ontario. Plan now to bring along the entire family and spend the day in Haliburton on Wednesday, August 6th.

The following is a list of the highlights to be featured at this year's Rotary Carnival.

GIANT MIDWAY

The giant Midway will be in operation starting at 1:00 p.m. It will feature games of chance, ferris wheel, tempest, merry-go-round, chair swings and others. Refreshments can also be obtained throughout the afternoon and evening. So come early and enjoy the midway by avoiding the big line-ups at night.

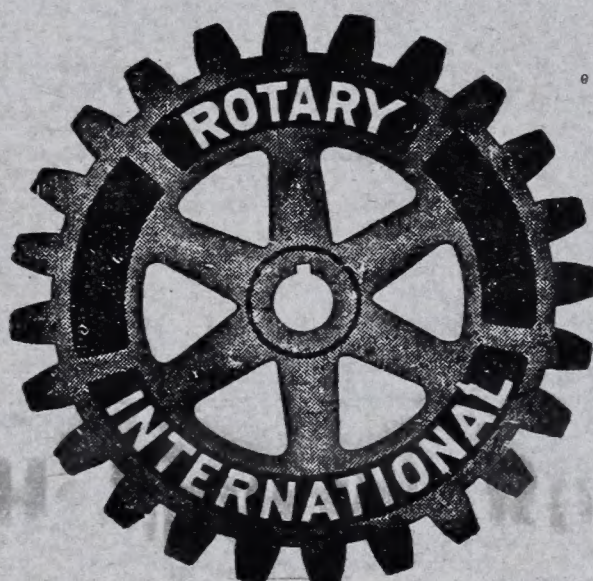

AFTERNOON ATTRACTIONS

During the afternoon from 1:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. there will be fun and excitement for everyone. This year an added attraction will be the Beer Garden with live entertainment, a giant midway with plenty of rides and Pop, Pizza and Hot Dogs for those who may be hungry. Games of Chance and oh yes that ever popular Splash Tank which will give you the opportunity to Dump your Boss.

EVENING ATTRACTIONS

It will all begin in the evening with a monster parade at 7 p.m. followed by a giant midway, refreshments, beer garden and entertainment at the fairgrounds. Bingo will be held in the Legion Auditorium for cash prizes and a 50-50 Draw will take place at 11 p.m.

MONSTER PARADE

The monster parade which will be really something to see will kick off the evening's entertainment when it gets underway at 7:00 p.m. Just another year - another reminder - another Rotary parade. Our many summer visitors are wondering just how we can come up with such a parade of floats, boys and girls entries, etc., but of course the locals know the answer: participation and co-operation.

Any boys or girls camps, lodges, merchants, clowns or comics, kiddies on bicycles, or any others outside these groups who live, visit or holiday in our community must like what they see about them. The Rotary parade is an activity - twenty-nine years of Rotary parade and carnival and each year seems to be better and better.

Please plan your parade entry early - get your name on the float, etc. - and just be at the usual play field at 6:45 p.m. or earlier on Wednesday, August 6 and the parade helpers will place you in your proper groups. Due to added attractions, the parade will get on its way by 7:00 p.m. and no later, so be at the assembly area early.

SPECIAL ATTRACTIONS

A really special added attraction this year is an Antique Car Display featuring the first O.P.P. Cruiser [1941 Chevrolet]. The parade this year will feature plenty of music with the Haliburton Legion Pipe Band, the Orillia Silver Band and others. The midway will be better and bigger this year and its free admission to the Midway area. Don't miss the Splash Tank game in the afternoon.

CAR DRAW

Nearing the end of the evening the draw for the 1975 Camaro will be held. If you haven't already purchased your ticket on this car be sure to do so right away as only 1500 tickets are to be sold. You could be the lucky winner!

So there you have it, one of the biggest day and night events of the year - the Haliburton Rotary Carnival on Wednesday, August 6. Bring along all the members of your family for a day of fun and frolic.

Proceeds will be used for the Five Counties Children's Centre.

O.A.S. changes

Spouses to benefit

New legislation which will benefit thousands of Canadian couples who, until now, have had to live on one Old Age Security pension has been introduced in the House of Commons by Health and Welfare Minister Marc Lalonde.

Under the legislation, expected to go into effect October 1 of this year, spouses 60 to 64 years of age who are married to Old Age Security pensioners will be eligible for benefit payments of an income-tested Spouse's Allowance which at the maximum would be equal to the Old Age pension and Guaranteed Income Supplement.

It is estimated that between 65 and 90 thousand spouses will be eligible for benefits under the new program, at an estimated additional expenditure of $100 million.

The income needs of other groups such as singles, widows, etc., are being examined under the income support and supplementation proposals of the Federal-Provincial Social Security Review. It is hoped that agreement can be reached to implement the income support part of the system next year.

The Spouse's Allowance will escalate quarterly in line with increases in the Consumer Price Index just as the Old Age Security and Guaranteed Income Supplement payments do now, and will have the same status as the GIS for Income Tax purposes. This means that it will be deducted from the income of the recipient in determining the taxable income.

Mr. Lalonde stressed that application forms would be supplied to pensioners who are presently in receipt of OAS and GIS benefits.

The Bill also provides for other technical amendments as follows:

The Governor-in-Council would be given the authority to make a regulation whereby certain periods of absence from Canada may be counted as presence in Canada in determining eligibility for OAS.

The Minister of National Health and Welfare would be given the authority to write off small or uncollectable over-payments of benefits at his discretion to ease financial hardship.

If agreement were to be reached by a province and the federal government, any provincial benefits similar to those payable under the OAS Act may be added to the OAS cheque.

The Old Age Security Fund would be abolished and benefits would be paid directly out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

The Old Age Assistance Act would be repealed.

Seniors get I.D. cards

Senior citizens in the area will be among those from across Canada to receive special identification cards issued by Health and Welfare Canada.

The cards are being sent automatically to all Old Age Security recipients 65 years of age and over. The department emphasizes the fact that there is no need for anyone to file application - cards are being mailed automatically to eligible persons.

Department officials also stressed that the entire program of issuing the cards will take approximately three months to complete.

Health and Welfare Minister Marc Lalonde pointed out that the identity cards will allow the bearer to benefit from certain consumer discounts, reduced travel fares granted by local and long distance carriers and other advantages accorded to the elderly. It may also be used by pensioners and their organizations in negotiating additional discounts for senior citizens.

Restless Fitful day,
Alternating sun and cloud,
Rambunctious winds
The branches sway.
Leaves are tossing every way,
A noisy angry crowd.

And I am tempered,

So inclining to the mood,
Itching, restless,
Spirit skeltered;
Chafing so, but surely fettered,
Unable to elude.

The circumstance, the tie,
Just or not, an irksome berth,
Could I convince
And reason why,
To pass my obligations by;
Bedamned I'd roam the earth.

Enviably, free -
Roving nomad romping wind
Sweeping skys
And earth and sea,
Frolicsome outrageous glee
The devil strewn behind.

And we poor mortals,
Stayed, like birds with fettered wings,
Gaze to where
The blue grey palls,
Out yonder where the eagle calls,
The laverock sings.

W. Watson.

Transmitters and blasting zones construction zones

As most of us are aware there is a great deal of construction going on in Haliburton County on the Highways and the County Roads. The OPP would like to remind all motorists to slow down in the construction areas as there are men and equipment likely to be on the road. Please follow the signals of the flag personnel they are there for your safety. The OPP would also like to remind motorists who have vehicles equipped with "C B" radios to refrain from using them when in construction areas. Transmitting in these areas can set off any explosives nearby causing great risk to the construction workers and anyone in the area.

Haliburton News Letter

The big highlight coming up is the Annual Haliburton Rotary Carnival which will be held on Wednesday, August 6th. Make it a date now to attend.

While we are on the subject of Carnivals the Annual Minden Rotary Carnival is on tonight and Thursday night. Don't forget to take it in.

This coming Monday night at the Haliburton Highlands Secondary School the University of Guelph Drama Department will be presenting the play "Stop The World I Want To Get Off". This has been billed as an exceptionally good play and it's one that you won't want to miss. Curtain time is 8 o'clock.

During the past month or so Haliburton County has had very little rain and the Ministry of Natural Resources have their airplanes in the air in an effort to spot a fire before it gets going too far. We urge you to be careful with your matches, cigarettes and camp fires. Make sure they are out.

Ontario has 36.9% of the total Canadian population over the age of 65 years. Quebec follows with 23.7%

In 1971 the median age of the population of Ontario was 26.2 years.

There are 644,400 people in Ontario over the age of 65 years.

In Ontario 28.7% of the population is between 0-14 years; 62.9% is between 15-64; and 8.4% is over 65.

Some people seem to be of the opinion that construction of new buildings this year in Haliburton is down. From what we can see we think if anything it might be up. There seems to be a lot of building going on.

The proposed new laws for drivers of motor assisted bicycles [Mopeds] will not take effect until it is officially proclaimed, said Transportation and Communications Minister John R. Rhodes. This will probably be in the middle or latter part of the summer. Meanwhile moped drivers may continue to drive without a licence or insurance as under the original regulations.

A salute this week to the Rotary Club of Haliburton and Minden and the Minden Kinsmen Club who are all doing such a great job of service to the citizens of Haliburton County. Just look around and you will see the many projects that have been carried through by these three great service clubs.

It's really good to see so many of our old friends back this summer to vacation in the Highlands. We really hope that you will enjoy your visit.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., is a city of contrasts, of ancient lore and history -- famous steel mills and magnificent beauty spots. The site was first visited in 1622 when two French explorers, Etienne Brule and Grenolle, visited the rapids at this point and gave them the name Sault du aston.

The Haliburton Hockey Haven at Haliburton is in full swing with a busy schedule at the Haliburton Arena.

Plane flipped over in Kennisis Lake

The plane flipped over onto its back. There were no injuries but damage is estimated at $2000. Investigation by Prov. Const. W.F. Devereaux.

Wilberforce Good Times Country Weekend was a great success

The Wilberforce Good Times Country Weekend held last Friday, Saturday and Sunday was a real success with perfect weather on Friday and Saturday but the luck just didn't hold out and it rained on Sunday.

Sixteen contestants were entered in the beauty contest and the winner was Carol Ann Thomas.

Tallmans Plumbing of Wilberforce ran off with the first prize float in the parade which was one of the largest ever to be held in Haliburton County as thousands gathered for the big event.

The big dance with the music by Truth really packed them in and from all reports it was one of the largest crowds to ever attend a dance in this County.

The Legion parade that was planned for Sunday was rained out and it had to be held in the Arena. Special thanks goes out to all the bands, Legion members from the different branches who took part. Special speakers included William Scott M.P., Glen Hodgson MPP. It was a wonderful turnout in spite of the rain and it didn't dampen anyones spirits.

Following the big weekend one local citizen remarked that the entire weekend was perfectly planned and operated very smoothly. Wilberforce haven't what you would call a large population but everyone in the community pulls together in harmony and the results are wonderful.

Improvements scheduled for Highways 35 and 115

TORONTO -- Transportation and Communications Minister John R. Rhodes announced today that additional improvements will be carried out this Fall in three commercial areas on Highway 35 and 115 between Highway 401 and Enterprise Hill to further increase its operating efficiency and safety.

In the area of the service stations, known as "Gasoline Alley", continuous two-way, left-turn lanes appropriately zone painted for left turns will be installed.

In addition, internally-illuminated overhead signs restricting left turns to these designated locations and prohibiting passing will be mounted at suitable intervals along this section of the highway.

In the area of the Coach and Four Restaurant, exclusive left-turn lanes in both north and southbound directions will be incorporated within the existing pavement width.

A single, left-turn lane in the southbound direction will be added in the commercial area just north of the Township Road between Concession Roads III and IV.

The improvements also call for illumination at all three locations.

Previous recommendations contained in a Ministry study on possible factors contributing to the high collision rate on this 11.5 mile stretch of highway are now virtually complete with the exception of illumination and the closing of two minor intersections in the Orono area.

People from all over the county plus hundreds of visitors were in Haliburton by 7:00 p.m. to see the big night kicked off by a parade which began at the Legion Hall and wended its way down Highland Street turning at the Cenotaph and then proceeding back to the Legion Hall.

The parade was led by the Haliburton Legion Pipe Band and they were followed by a Legion Color party with flags and marching members of the local branch. The Haliburton Highlands Majorettes who are large in number were also in the parade and looked very sharp in their new uniforms. One float was in this years parade and that was entered by the Haliburton Highlands Snowmobile Association.

Following the parade the large crowd headed for the arena and fairgrounds for an evening of fun and games while the bingo fans went into the auditorium of the Legion to play their favourite game.

One of the highlights of this years Carnival was a highly successful amateur contest with plenty of talent on stage and it was thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

Haliburton Highlights

We had a call from a woman at West Guilford the other day re-assuring us that there was an earthquake as we reported at Ingoldsby recently. The rumble was also noticed at West Guilford.

The Rotary Club of Haliburton were first in attendance for the month of June in District 705.

Work has resumed on the filtration plant in Haliburton and we have been assured that as soon as the work is completed that those on the first phase of the sewer line will be hooked on.

Latest reports reaching our office from the Royal Canadian Legion at Haliburton spells out some good news. The Legion Carnival held last Wednesday was a great financial success.

There must be an answer to the problem of trucks unloading and double parking on the main street in this busy season. It sure holds traffic up.

Who says that there's a shortage of money? After seeing what is being spent at local businesses and by the amount spent at the Legion Carnival it makes us think that there is lots of money around.

Patients at the Red Cross Hospital this week are Mr Eldon Sibley, Tory Hill, Mrs Jean Thompson, Haliburton, Mr Archie Trumbull, Minden, Miss Machael Conneghan, Baby girl Bowen.

We are sorry to report that Grant Brooks is in York County Hospital in Newmarket, Room 536. He has just recently suffered a coronary and a stroke. We join with his many friends in wishing him a speedy recovery.

Editorials

A great service being provided

Mr. Bill Scott M.P. for Victoria-Haliburton has realized that the people of Haliburton County have problems that need immediate attention.

In an effort to solve some of these problems he made a great move in opening up an office in Haliburton.

Mr Lloyd Graham, constituency secretary for our local Federal Member is holding office hours in Haliburton from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on the second and fourth Tuesday of each month. On these dates Mr Graham is available to assist with any problem of a Federal nature at the office of Curry Bishop on the main street in Haliburton.

The office has been opened since July 8th and many people already have taken their problems to Mr Graham who then relays them on to Mr Scott for immediate attention.

This has been a good move on the part of Mr Scott and we hope that all citizens in Haliburton County will avail themselves of the opportunity to drop into this office with their problems. You can't say that you haven't had the opportunity.

The next visit by Mr Graham will be on Tuesday, August 12th 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

We are not on the map

It's just about time that the Provincial Government sent some of their men to the Highlands of Haliburton to see that we do exist as an area.

This week we were shown a booklet put out by the Ministry of Industry and Tourism called the Encyclopedia for Ontario and on the front it stated where to go and stay in Ontario.

On the inside of this booklet is a large map showing the travel areas in the Central Ontario Tourist Association area. They are all there with the exception of the Highlands of Haliburton which is just plainly a blank space on the map. In other words we are not on the map.

This isn't the first time that this has happened and its just about time that we see to it that it doesn't happen again.

The local Chamber of Commerce are looking into the matter and in our opinion the citizens of the Highlands of Haliburton should receive a public apology from the Hon. Claude Bennett and the Ministry of Industry and Tourism.

We here in Haliburton County have taken a back seat too long and its up to us to see that we are moved to the front row.

We do exist as one of the finest tourist areas in Ontario and its just about time that the Provincial Government found this out.

Haliburton Rotary Carnival highlight of summer season

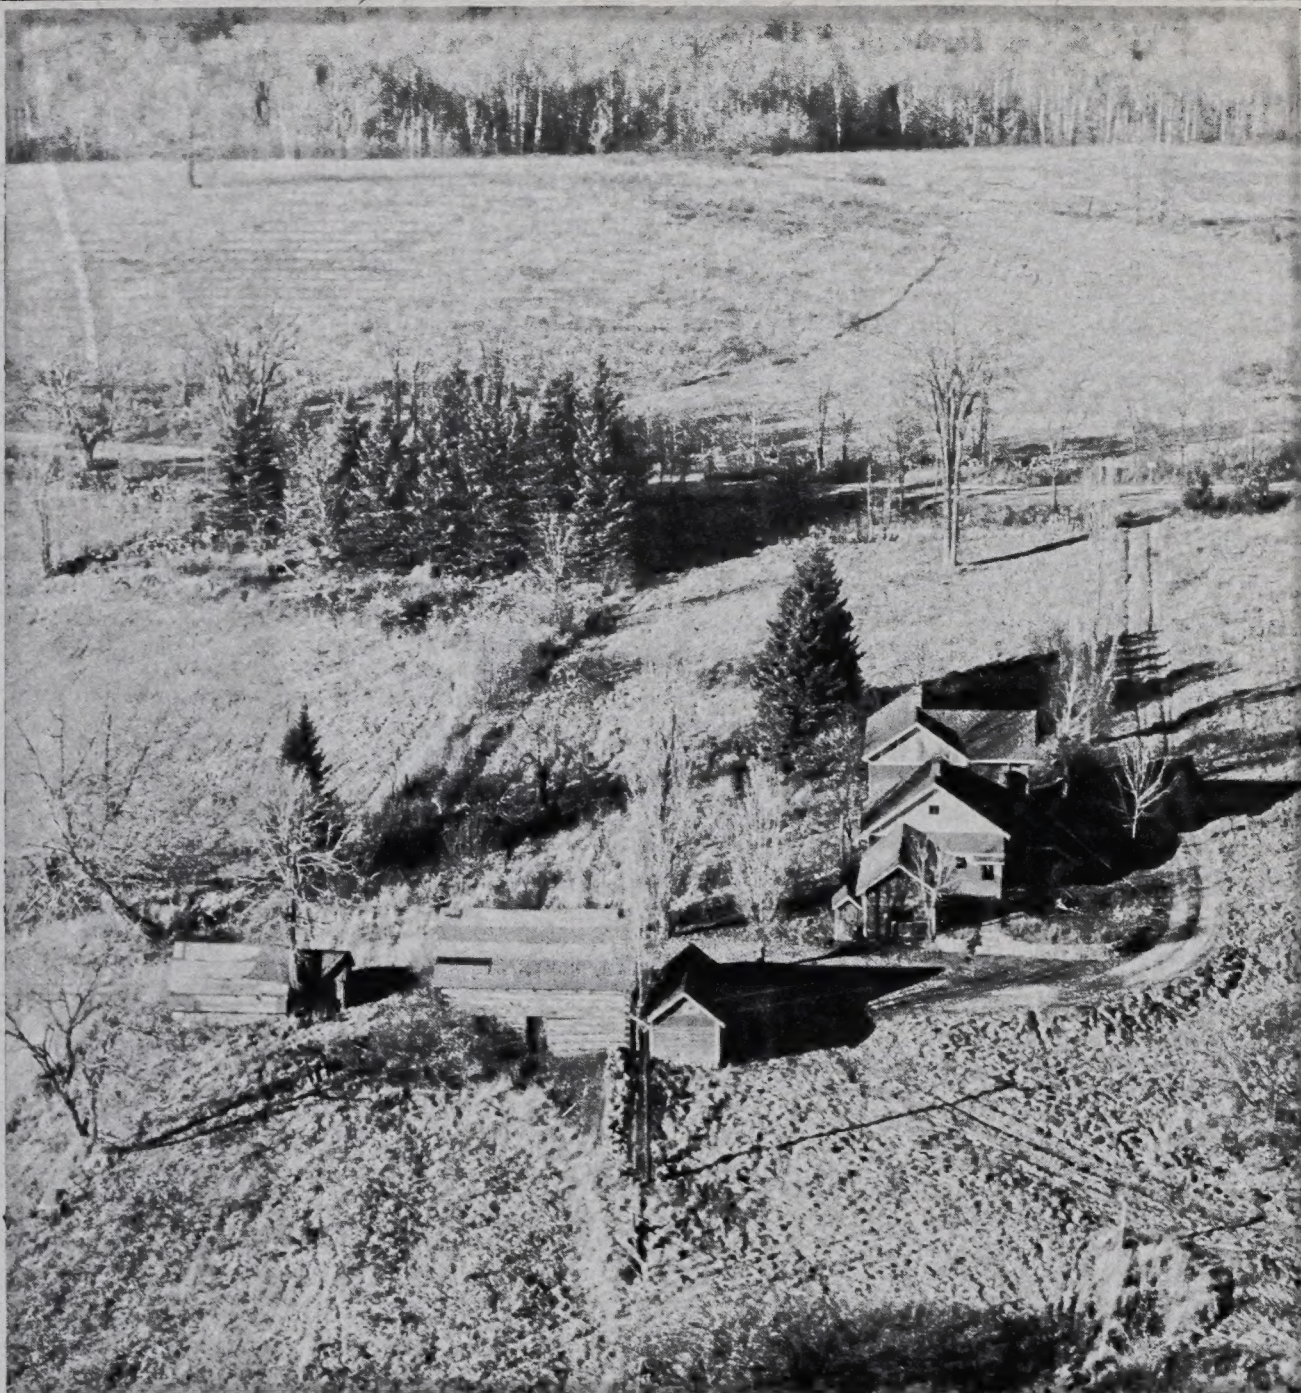

The Highlight of the summer season the annual Haliburton Rotary Carnival will soon be with us once again. The big day will be Wednesday, August 6th and would you believe that many summer visitors take their holidays at this time of year so that they won't miss out on this gala event.

One of the main attractions that brings them back year after year is the monster parade which in many peoples' opinion is one of the best small town parades in Ontario. This years parade promises to be one of the best and it will feature bands, floats and marching units.

Many changes have been made on the format of this years big attraction and we hope you will like what the Rotary Club has in store for you.

It just wouldn't be the good old summertime without the Haliburton Rotary Carnival so we issue and invitation to one and all to come to Haliburton on this day for plenty of fun and entertainment.

The action starts at noon hour and continues through until midnight. See you there.

Letters to the editor

As you probably know, construction of the new Wilberforce Community Curling Rink is now under way. Crews of men are working Sundays and every night except Friday. Any curlers who have not been contacted but would like to help call any member of the Building Committee - Chuck Lindsay, Keith Tallman, Tony Berning or Jim Murdock, or come on out when you can. The building site is just behind the Fire Hall of Fleming Road.

Our Fund Raising Committee is working very hard and some Full Memberships have been received but more is needed as soon as possible if we hope to have our new facilities ready for November. Those persons who wish to purchase a full voting membership should return their dues of $100.00 to the writer at Box 149, Wilberforce.

At this time the Club, which is in the process of becoming Incorporated, is also prepared to offer interest bearing shares to all interested persons. These shares are for a fixed term of FIVE years and pay interest at 2% above bank rates for savings accounts. Interest is payable yearly on December 15th and is calculated at 2% above bank rates as of that date in each year. The shares are available in multiples of $100.00 each.

Our aim is to create enough local investment to offset taking out a mortgage. And we feel that our members and local residents should have priority for this special offer. Tell your friends and relatives what we are doing and get involved!

Please feel free to contact the writer or any member of the Club executive for your share application or for more information.

Your interest and support would be greatly appreciated.

Sirs:

I the undersigned am a resident of Haliburton County. In spite of 250 foot tower, special booster, the only TV reception I can get is from Barrie, Channel 3.

I therefore feel it important to raise some questions and protest regarding "Programmes" from the Barrie Station.

For example - 1) Why wasn't the most important Canadian horse race of the season "The Queens Plate" televised over Channel 3, Barrie? Myself, my guests, most interested in this race were shut out of the results, which we find most upsetting.

2) The televising of the N.D.P. Leadership Convention left much to be desired. Four of the candidates for leadership were heard in full. Douglas Campbell's statement was cut off from the viewers halfway through his speech. We would like to know who in the C.B.C. decides these questions and in fact who decides why the debate of the Convention should be cut out and replaced by two C.B.C. commentators who put their own analysis on the Convention rather than let the Canadian public decide for themselves the outcome of the discussion.

3) In general the programming from Channel 3 is low grade. The advertising which viewers are subjected to is even worse. A picture running for two hours, has every fifteen minutes, 6 to 7 ads which seems just too much.

It really is time to overhaul the "Programming" of the Barrie TV Station and let the viewers of this area have some decent programmes.

Yours truly
[Mrs] M. Ferguson

BILL SMILEY

A summer summary

HEREWITH Smiley's bi-annual Summer Safety Hints. Various departments of government: Agriculture, Lands and Forests, Tourism and Tripe, Fire and Water — annually send out a list of things to do to protect your life and various other things during the hot season.

It is my opinion that these lists are not only repetitious and redundant, but overlapping and underpinning, so once in a while I try to publish a few Summer Safety Tips that can be used as filler by all lazy, hot, tired editors.

Even though the summer is half over, and thousands of people have drowned, or nearly drowned, I think a few swimming suggestions would not come amiss.

Never forget that amiss is as good as amile. So my first tip is that if you're going to swim amile, make sure you don't go amiss. I think that requires no further explanation.

Speaking of amiss, never try to make love either reclining in a canoe, or in a reclining canoe.

In the first instance, if the thing rolls over, which it usually does, you are caught in a death-clutch and will have to punch your partner in the belly to break the hold. This is considered bad form. It is also embarrassing, not to say dangerous, if your partner is swifter with a left hook than you are.

In the second place — a reclining canoe — it is obviously leaking, and you shouldn't be out there in the first place.

Much better to confine your canoe love-making to a standing position. Then, if women's equilibration seems to be taking over — that is, if there is any chance that you are going to be the least bit upset, jump overboard and swim like hell for the nearest lifeguard.

Now for diving. Never dive into unknown waters. Many a man you'll meet on the streets, whimpering, limping, middle-aged, head-scarred. Ask him what the matter is, and he'll respond: "I dived into unknown waters." This is his euphemism for admitting he is married.

Try not to dive into a swimming pool. Use a diving pool. If you do happen to dive into a swimming pool, and it has a plastic bottom, wear a plastic helmet. If it happens to have a concrete bottom, and you are turkey enough to dive into it, you probably won't feel a thing.

Never dive alone. Per-

Pic of the past

Our Pic of the Past This week takes us back a few years to a Beaver Skinning contest held here in Haliburton county. The Late James Minto of Minden who passed away just recently is shown skinning a Beaver while the sonally, when I dive, whether it is from 30 feet, 12 feet, four feet, or even my accustomed 18 inches, I am always accompanied by water wings, an inflated tube, and my entire family. It may not be Olympic grace and style, but I don't have a hole in my head from hitting rocks.

Never take a person out over his or her depth. In other words, if your mother-in-law is only five feet tall and can't swim, don't take her out to where it is six feet deep. Just take her out where it is five feet deep, hand her some lead weights, and tell her to do push-ups.

Enough about swimming. How about boating? Well, the same principles apply there. Never put more than 12 people in a 12 foot boat, six people in a six foot boat, or more than 88 people in a bar that is built for 44. This way you can not only be safe but sorry.

If it is a sailboat, do not load it up with sailors. Sailors are usually drunk and disorderly, according to the police records of all the ports of the world. The same, by the way, goes for soldiers, if you happen to have a soldier-boat.

If you have a power boat, of course, this is your chance to show the world. Take any average swimmer, and a pair of water skis. Throw both over the back of the boat. The order doesn't matter. Shove the throttle wide open. Then show everybody what Napoleon would have been like without Waterloo.

Water on the brain? Let's turn to other aspects of summer danger.

Do not stamp out bonfires with your bare feet. In the first place, those coals are probably just fireflies going through their second incarnation, and have just as much right to live as you have.

Secondly, the smell of roasting meat is liable to bring dozens of barbecue artists from all over the neighborhood down on you, asking what kind of sauce you use. Pee on 'em. The coals, that is.

Another thing you should not stamp out with your bare foot is your flowerbed, even though it taunts you, thwarts you, thumbs its nose at you and sticks its bare roots in the air at you, as mine recently did. There were two rose bushes among them, in mine.

Then, of course, there are bugs. Don't spray them. Don't swat them. They, too, are merely lower forms of consciousness trying to rise to a higher, in their next incarnation.

I had a Buddhist monk flying around me the other night, whining: "Don't hit me! Don't hit me! I was once an altar boy for St. Thomas Aquinas."

Splatt! Is he going to be surprised when he is reincarnated as an Anglican bishop. Female.

Larry Perrott resigns from Chamber of Commerce

The directors of the Haliburton Highlands Chamber of Commerce last Thursday accepted the resignation of Chamber Manager Larry Perrott.

Mr Perrott announced he was leaving the Chamber of Commerce in order to assume a new position as a real estate salesman with Gerry Heywood Real Estate Limited of Minden.

First hired by the Chamber a little over two years ago, Mr Perrott was promoted late last year from Secretary-manager to Manager.

He had been employed previously as a sales representative with a dental supply firm, travelling throughout much of Ontario.

Mr. Perrott assumes his new position August 11.

Trent-Severn waterway

Recent rains have raised the levels of the Kawartha Lakes allowing a reduction in the flows out of the Northern Reservoir Lakes. These lakes stood at about 70% of their available storage depth on July 24, 1975.

Rainfalls recorded at Minden, however, were not as great as at Peterborough. Reservoir lake levels there are unlikely to rise without further rain. Dry conditions before last weekend's rains are evident when one notes that from June 16th to July 18th, 0.79 inches of precipitation was recorded at Minden which is only 24% of the normal 3.31 inches.

Flows past Peterborough are being maintained between 500 and 700 cubic feet per second to retain as much water as possible.

UIC Prosecution

Man convicted

Randy Yde, Age 20, of Castleton, Ontario was convicted in Cobourg Provincial Court on the 17th of July, 1975.

Mr Yde pleaded "Guilty" before Judge R.B. Baxter to 4 charges under the Unemployment Insurance Act and Regulations. Mr M. Suggitt, Benefit Control Officer for the UIC told the Court that Mr Yde worked for 8 weeks and failed to report that he was working on his bi-weekly claimant's Reports. By not reporting that he was working, he fraudulently obtained $592.00 from the Commission.

Judge Baxter sentenced

Yde to 10 days in jail on each count for a total of 40 days. In passing sentence Judge Baxter made the following statement: "The Unemployment Insurance Fund was created for a purpose. The reason people pay into the fund and that purpose does not include the manner in which you have abused it. You have made no attempt to pay back the overpayment which you created and in my opinion you have no intentions of paying it back. I, therefore, see no reason in my considering a fine against you and sentence you to ten (10) days in the county jail on each of the four (4) offences, to be served consecutively."

Theatre Act

Amendments to control porno films

Amendments to The Theatres Act that will give the Ontario Board of Censors control over 8 millimetre film and videotape received third and final reading in the Legislature Thursday night.

Sidney Handleman, Ontario Consumer Minister, said that the amendments will enable the censors to control the films in pornographic theatres and body-rub shops that line the Yonge Street 'strip' in Toronto.

"The government has the responsibility to provide leadership and to demonstrate to the public that it has a concern for public morality," the Minister told the Legislature.

Mr Handleman's Parliamentary Assistant, Frank Drea (Scarborough Centre), in a speech to the House supporting the amendments, detailed the way in which organized crime in the United States has taken over the lucrative pornographic film trade in Toronto.

Mr Handleman said that Mr Drea's speech showed "very, very clearly" how organized crime moves to satisfy the desires created by human weakness.

The spread of the pornographic films has caused serious degeneration in Toronto in the past four years,

Mr Handleman said. "The Board of Censors has not had the statutory authority to control these films", the Minister said. "Since the original Theatres Act only gave them power to review 16, 35 and 70 millimetre movies. The original Act had not anticipated the advent of video tape, and when the Act was framed, 8 millimetre film was only used for home movies ... not for commercial purposes. Clearly the porno film business exploited the loop-holes in the original law, but we are satisfied that the amendments will not allow for that kind of possibility again".

The amendments also allow a Canadian quota to be applied to films and videotapes shown in public theatres, Mr Handleman said. He expressed personal satisfaction with the quota system that had originally applied only to British motion pictures. The provision of the new quotas will encourage low-budget Canadian filmmakers to experiment in the more economical 8 millimetre and videotape productions, the Minister said.

Mr Handleman said that regulations will be developed and the Act proclaimed as soon as possible.

New life for Trent's audio library program

PETERBOROUGH -- A one-year agreement by the Rehabilitation Branch of the provincial ministry of Community and Social Services to purchase services for blind and physically handicapped students has given new life to Trent University's audio library program.

The agreement provides that the ministry will pay the university $1,300 for each qualified student using the program's services, up to a maximum of $52,000.

The audio library program at Trent was established in 1972 with the aid of a grant from the Ministry of Colleges and Universities. A large number of volunteers, working with the program's permanent staff, read books onto tapes for use by blind and physically handicapped students throughout the province. The final grant in the initial program has now expired.

Approximately 30 students were served by the program in 1974-75 and D.S. Hayter, program director, said he is confident that the maximum figure provided for in the agreement will permit the program to serve students requiring this type of material in the coming academic year.

P.J. Tighe, coordinator of audio-visual services at Trent, praised the efforts of Peterborough MPP John Turner and the cooperation of the Hon. Rene Brunelle, Minister of Community and Social Services, and Mr Peter Crichton, director of the Rehabilitation Branch, in the negotiations that led to the agreement.

As the condition of the agreement, the ministry has requested that Trent continue its efforts toward cooperation among universities and colleges in the province to avoid duplication of services and reduce costs.

The ministry has also indicated its willingness to work with Trent toward alternate long-term funding for this type of program in colleges and universities.

Rip reports that business is good

Rips Sleepy Hollow owner of West Guilford Camp Grounds report Business is good. He has been filled to near capacity and overflowing on weekends. Rip bases his success on Hospitality, Economy and Sociability. It is the reporters contention if more businesses were to use the same tactics the report we read in our local paper that spending is down things about would be a bit better.

Rip also reported he intends to open up another 75 to 100 lots. He has 70 lots serviced with hydro water with additional sites for tenting. Promotion seems to be Rips Happiness as he and his wife spend a great deal of their time promoting our West Guilford Recreation Centre.

Close to three hundred well wishers turned out at the home of Mr and Mrs Harry Cowen on Saturday to help Mrs Beatrice Gilbank celebrate her 85th birthday.

This grand old lady who is in excellent health is the kind of person who has a great personality and who just seems to light up the room when she is present. She is certainly young at heart and just a week ago she attended a wedding and tripped the light fantastic with the groom.

Mrs Gilbank came to Canada on her 10th birthday from Poole, Dorset in England and spent the biggest part of her life at Woodbridge, Ontario.

For the past sixteen years she has been living with her daughter and son-in-law Mr and Mrs Harry Cowen.

Mrs Gilbank has one son, five daughters, twenty grandchildren, thirty-seven great, grandchildren and two great, great grandchildren.

People came from Peterboro, Woodbridge, Lindsay, Brampton, Rice Lake, Minden, Carnarvon, Haliburton and Ingoldsby to be with her on this occasion.

We at the Echo join with Mrs Gilbanks many friends in wishing her many more years of good health and prosperity.

Ten thousand brook trout and four thousand rainbow trout have been planted in the following locations throughout the district:

Havelock Pond
Norwood Pond
Jackson's Pond (city of Peterboro)
Braithwaite Creek
Dollars Creek
Grafton Creek
Burnley Mill Creek
Blacks Creek
Baltimore Creek
Plato Creek
Ouse River
Millbrook River Provincial Fishing Area.

Planting of trout will continue in the Millbrook Provincial Fishing area until mid-July.

Musky populations have increased in the Kawartha Lakes including Belmont, Round, Crowe and Cordova Lakes with the planting of approximately 150,000 musky fry from the Deer Lake Provincial Fish Hatchery.

The Kawartha Lakes can also expect approximately 14,000 musky fingerlings by mid-August.

Streams flowing into Lake Ontario in the Region of Durham and the county of Northumberland will receive 100,000 rainbow trout fry this summer.

Stream Surveys

A stream survey crew of two men will be working throughout the summer, surveying many of the streams within the district. Some of the waters will be the Nonquon River, Mariposa Brook, Eastcross, Cavan, Baxter and Squirrel Creeks. Their work will include electro shocking the streams to determine fish populations chemical analysis of the waters, invertebrate samples and a general all round assessment of the stream including velocity, topography instream vegetation and fish spawning potential.

The information collected will be valuable to inventing our sport fish recreation areas and the potential for stream improvement.

Save Gas, Save Lives!!!

With the increased prices in gas a double saving can be had by slowing down while driving country roads.

Many hatches of our song birds are now concentrated along country roads while feeding. These birds are very slow flyers and vulnerable to fast moving cars. By driving slowly on these roads you have a chance to enjoy observing these birds and saving their lives. The same goes for small mammals who now follow their parents in search of food and frequently cross roads. You also will save gas.

Wayne Helson
Forest Technician

On July 3, 1975, 30 acres of Scotspine slash was burned by this Ministry on one of our Woodlands Improvement Agreement properties in Clarke Township.

The unmerchantable Scotspine was bulldozed, by the landowner, into east-west windrows during the winter of 1973-74. Left to dry until now, each windrow was carefully burned to eliminate the slash and prepare the site for planting next spring.

Equipment and manpower consisted of hand tools, two tank pumpers each holding 1000 gallons of water, four Ministry employees, assisted by 2 seasonal employees and 5 Experience 75 students. These resources were strategically placed around the perimeter and ensured a safe controlled burn.

Fire when used by an expert can be a useful silvicultural tool. However its use should be restricted to those who have the knowledge, skill and equipment to always keep it "UNDER CONTROL".

Garbage is coming up roses.

Twenty years from now, crops growing on recycled garbage will be an everyday sight.

That's pretty hard to imagine right now because most of us think of garbage as just that—garbage. But in fact, it's a potential resource.

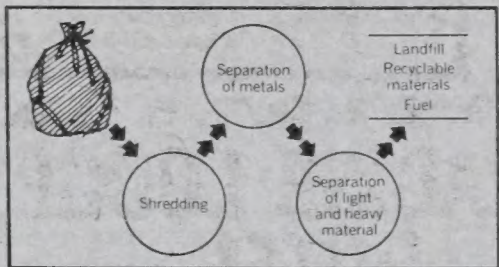

—And the Ontario Ministry of the Environment is harnessing it.

How does it happen?

By recycling. Garbage will be taken to recycling centres where it will be shredded, separated, and some of it, turned into fertile soil to revitalize barren areas of the province.

The same basic shredding and separating process will also produce fuel, paper, cardboard, metals.

And we've just begun to explore the possible end uses of garbage.

The system: step by step.

A centre for advanced research will come up with many more.

Where is it happening?

Our Ministry has already inaugurated Ontario's first recycling centre in North York. In the next two years, similar centres will be built to serve London, Sudbury, Peel, Halton, Metro Toronto and south eastern Ontario.

In 15 years there will be recycling centres all across the province to handle 90 per cent of Ontario's garbage—everything from abandoned cars to organic waste.

Why recycle?

Because the people of Ontario—all of us—pile up garbage at three times the rate that the population increases.

The Ministry is working on ways to reduce that amount, but we'll always have garbage. And we're having trouble finding places to put it and the landfill to cover it.

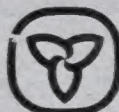

Once garbage is being recycled, those problems will be over. But more important than the dumping problems, we're literally throwing away valuable resources with every ton of garbage we discard.

In a community of 100,000, garbage recycling will conserve the equivalent of up to 3,500,000 gallons of fuel oil a year, 3,600 tons of reclaimed steel, 4,500 tons of glass.

Our recycling program is considered one of the most advanced in the world. It's a commitment to a different way of living.

And the whole world will be watching Ontario's garbage come up roses.

College students take over orientation for newcomers

Sir Sandford Fleming College's summer orientation program for prospective students is for the first time being operated totally this year by current College students in an experiment aimed at making such sessions more meaningful.

Second year audio-visual student Leah Thomson, who is heading the 15-member student leader group formed in April to conduct the sessions, said the students wanted to take over the program because they felt it would make newcomers more at ease and promote better discussion.

Ms. Thomson said it also left potential students with the impression that students played a strong positive role in College life, which the student leaders felt would be adopted as an attitude among freshmen.

Sessions are conducted Saturday and Sunday afternoons at the Brealey Drive campus in Peterborough and each are attended by up to 50 newcomers, according to Ms. Thomson.

Since the majority are from outside the city, including points as far as Toronto, Ottawa and Sudbury, housing is the major field of interest, although the far-ranging nature of other questions did, she felt, show that the original assumption was correct, and potential students do feel more comfortable with students than with administrative officials.

She said the College students involved get a good deal of satisfaction from the program themselves, and are proud of its apparent success.

"We are paid the minimum hourly wage while on duty, but when you consider that most have regular summer jobs, the money would not be enough reason to give up our weekends", Ms. Thomson pointed out.

The program involves a tour of the physical College facilities, with special emphasis on the location of such areas as academic division offices, the bank, student offices, cafeteria, and swimming pool.

ming pool.

Sir Sandford counsellor William Samuels said the College has had an orientation program in past years involving students, but always with administrators or teachers in charge.

"We were a bit surprised when the Peterborough students asked to take it over completely this year, but judging from the way it is being handled, and by the response they are getting, it was a good idea," Mr. Samuels said.

He noted a second group, called "student advisors", has been formed for several years and assists with many College activities designed to make new students feel welcome, or inform secondary school students of College programs and opportunities.

The College's Lindsay based natural resources division also holds orientation sessions, but because students there come from across the province they are offered after classes begin in the fall, he said.

Tenders

The Ministry of Transportation and Communications has advised that Larsen-Grills Construction Limited of Cobourg, Ontario, has been awarded Contract No. 75-91 for: Grading, Drainage, Granular Base and Structure, McGee's Creek Bridge, 5.7 Miles, North of Highway 46, Highway 503, Mileage: 0.71, Port Hope District.

The Contractor's tender for this contract was $305,171.20. It is scheduled to get under way August 4th, 1975.

Tenders will be advertised for the Ministry of Government Services on July 21st and 23rd to supply and install silicone waterproofing to masonry surfaces at the Ontario Government Building, Lindsay, Ontario. The estimated completion date is September 30th, 1975.

Seminar to focus use of underground space

In an effort to meet the requirements of low energy consumption and environmental acceptance, architects, engineers and land developers are beginning to examine more closely the use of underground space.

To focus this interest, the Ministry of Industry and Tourism, in co-operation with the Ministries of Environment and Natural Resources, is conducting a seminar August 6 in the Macdonald Block, 900 Bay St., Toronto, to outline the development and use of underground space.

Dr. Truman Stauffer, of the University of Missouri and a recognized leader in underground space use, will be the keynote speaker.

Dr. Stauffer will update the development and use of underground space in the Kansas City area and, following a two-week tour of Ontario, will comment on potential underground development in various Ontario regions.

Other speakers will review the technology of underground space use, present data on the feasibility of developing space beneath the surface and provide an assessment of the legal and environmental implications of underground development.

There has been a total of 210,300 visitors using both the day use and camping facilities which these four parks provide, during this period.

In order to provide the proper facilities and services to the park visitors in the District, approximately 100 seasonal employees have been engaged this year. Local area adults, secondary and post secondary school students make up this number. The positions they fill vary from cash receiving, interpretation, beach patrol, general maintenance, sanitation maintenance and night security.

In addition to the normal compliment of students hired this year, twelve Experience '75 students have been engaged for the four parks to work on special operational and development projects.

Experience 75 is a program set up by the Province of Ontario to provide jobs to approximately 7,500 students in addition to the 10,000 positions made available by regular Government summer employment hiring.

Tom Thomson

Painter of Algonquin Park's Canoe Lake

LISMER SKETCH OF THOMSON

Two years before he died mysteriously, the legendary artist Tom Thomson painted the scene of his own death on Algonquin Park's Canoe Lake. The painting, which hangs in the McMichael Canadian Collection, is a poignant reminder of one of Canada's great art geniuses.

Thomson died 58 years ago this month and, as one commentator put it, "... his life was the pure stuff of legends. Most of his later years were lived alone in the forest. His early death in mysterious circumstances, plus the meteor-like briefness of his dazzling career, combined to turn him into a national icon of art."

The painting is a small oil on wooden panel measuring 8½ by 10½ inches and is one of a series made around Canoe Lake -- a favourite haunt of the artist. It was sketched from a point of land at the north end of the lake where Thomson often camped and where there stands an historic cairn, erected by friends after his death.

The view to the south shows the sear autumn hills of spruce and balsam, birch and pine which still grow to the shoreline. It is painted in a distinctive style which characterized some of his most famous works. The panel shows the islands which figured in the final chapters of the Thomson story, and the vivid, sparkling water where his body was found on July 16, 1917, eight days after he was last seen alive.

Thomson was born in 1877 at Claremont, Ontario and spent his boyhood at Leith, near Owen Sound. The years of his young manhood have been described as indifferent, lacking in a solid direction. He wandered briefly to Seattle, Washington then settled in Toronto as a commercial artist. Well into his thirties Thomson was doing "dull imitative and not very accomplished figures and landscapes ... at an age when most artists had already achieved a personal authority of style."

But in Toronto Thomson met and worked with other artists who were later to form the famous Group of Seven, Canada's most powerful art movement -- men whose bold elemental portraits of the country were to give new meaning to the idea of being a Canadian. Among them were J.E.H. MacDonald, Arthur Lismer, Fred Varley, A.Y. Jackson, Frank Johnson, Franklin Carmichael and others.

Thomson made his first trip into Algonquin Park in 1912 when the Park was still remote northern country. By 1914 he began to find the freedom and power, the brilliant colour and forceful brushwork which characterized his art and began to attract some prominence.

In the winter he worked in a weatherbeaten shack in Toronto's Rosedale Ravine which once served as a machine shop, preferring it to a spacious and comfortable studio nearby. Today the shack, preserved much as he used it, stands at the McMichael Canadian Collection, a modest building, but one of the most important in Canadian art.

At the shack he entertained his friends; a quiet man to the point of shyness; tall, athletic, his woodsman's stride somewhat out of place in the city environment. He was an easy-going man but capable of intense feelings toward his art, feelings which sometimes left him nearly inarticulate until he achieved an artistic goal -- capturing an exact colour, an exact mood or scene. Some of the most endearing insights into Thomson were provided by the quick pen of Arthur Lismer, the wit of the Group of Seven, who captured Thomson in simple ink sketches.

Thomson was last seen alive on the afternoon of July 8, 1917, a dull wet day with a brisk northeasterly breeze. He was paddling south on Canoe Lake to fish, he had said, either at Gill Lake or Tea Lake dam. As his life and work captured the imagination of Canadians, his mysterious death was to raise questions for generations.

Exact details vary from witness to witness but in the main there is no dispute with the following facts.

July 8: an upturned canoe was sighted by an American cottager, Martin Bletcher, and his sister.

July 9: the upturned canoe was reported by Bletcher.

July 10: the canoe, Thomson's, was recovered.

July 11: a search for Thomson was started by friends.

July 16: Thomson's body was found near the islands which he had earlier painted and was towed to a small cove and, still lying in the water, was tethered to a tree to await the coroner.

July 17: the coroner, located more than 100 miles away, had not arrived, and Thomson's body was examined by a doctor vacationing in Canoe Lake. Sixteen or 17 turns of fishing line were found around the left ankle. There was a wound on the left temple. Thomson was buried later that day in a small graveyard near the west shore of the lake which contained other graves.

July 18: an undertaker arrived with orders from Thomson's family to exhume the body and ship it home. Unassisted, he completed his grisly task between 8:00 p.m. and midnight.

July 19: a casket said to contain the artist's body was shipped to Owen Sound for a family service.

July 21: the casket was buried in the family plot at Leith, Ontario. The church record notes: "Talented and with many friends and no enemies -- a mystery."

Few of Thomson's friends could accept that the skilled canoeist, woodsman and swimmer could have fallen from his canoe and drowned on a reasonably calm day and within a few 100 yards of shore. No one could explain the wound nor the fishing cord around his ankle.

The night before his death, Thomson had argued with Martin Bletcher about the progress of World War I. Bletcher, who apparently spent long periods in Canada to evade serving in the U.S. forces, may also have had an interest in Winnie Traynor, a Canoe Lake resident to whom Thomson may have been engaged.

Theories about his death, for these and other reasons, have been many. Nor have the years lessened interest in the mystery. One theory, widely held, is that Thomson was murdered. Another, that he was struck by lightning -- not so uncommon an accident as might be supposed. Other theories include the views of a mystic that he faked his own death and travelled to the U.S. to join the armed forces after being unable to join in Canada.

Over the years there was also a belief that Thomson's body had never been removed from the Park and the doubts were strong. In 1956 a small group led by Toronto judge William T. Little -- one of the best known of Thomson's biographers and investigators -- located the gravesite in a pine grove on the west shore of Canoe Lake. In it they found a skeleton. The skull showed a wound.

Forensic scientists, however, said the body was that of an Indian or a half-breed, but many questions were left unanswered and doubts about the final resting place of the artists remain to this day.

And over the years the legend has grown by reports of canoe parties having seen Thomson.

"I raised my voice and called and waved," one woman wrote about a sunset encounter, "but there was no response, for even as we looked the canoe and its paddler, without warning or sound, vanished into nothingness and on the undisturbed lake were only our lonely selves and the shrieking of a loon."

Thomson has been described as Canada's most important artist. Whatever the ages may decide about his work, there is little doubt that Thomson's art was a major influence on his friends and colleagues who formed the Group of Seven three years after his death and whose work to this day is a major force in Canadian art.

In the three years when Thomson's art was at its peak, he achieved an astonishing body of work. His large canvases were few but his small oil panels numbered into the hundreds.

Of these, the largest single body -- more than 60 -- are a part of the McMichael Canadian Collection at Kleinburg, just north of Toronto. His work hangs among that of his friends and colleagues of the Group of Seven and other Canadian masters such as Milne, Carr, Gagnon and the magnificent art of Canada's Indian and Inuit.

The work of these artists are dramatically blended with the surrounding hills and the glacial valley of the Humber River. Century-old hand-hewn timbers, native granite and huge expanses of window area, intimately link more than 30 galleries with the landscape that provided the Canadian masters with their inspiration. In the last years of his life, the Collection was the home of A.Y. Jackson, a founding member of the group and friend of Thomson.

Among the thousand and more treasures of the Collection, the small oil panel with the unassuming title, "Islands, Canoe Lake" will, for many, always have a special meaning.

ISLAND, CANOE LAKE

News from Manpower

A $150 million Local Initiatives Program will spearhead the federal program against unemployment this fall, Manpower and Immigration Minister Robert Andras announced recently. Last year's budget was $96 million.

This year, projects will start operating around the beginning of November, one month earlier than last year. In exceptional cases, a project may be permitted to begin during October.

The primary objective of LIP is to reduce unemployment by inviting Canadians to submit proposals for community projects that will provide jobs. To be eligible, projects must: create new jobs; provide a worthwhile facility or service to the community projects that will have the support of the community; have a maximum budget of $100,000 ($150,000 for municipal projects); employ only the unemployed; not support leisure activities solely for the sponsor's benefit; not have as its primary purpose the improvement of an individual's property.

Applications are available at all Canada Manpower Centres and at the Municipal Office of the Township of Anson, Hindon and Minden as well as the Municipal Office at Dysart. They must be submitted by September 12. In Haliburton, there is a CMC field office in the Legion Hall, open the second Tuesday of each month.

A special Information Desk is being set up in the Legion Hall on August 12, from 3 to 5 p.m. and from 7 to 9 p.m. Gerry Hales, the LIP liaison officer from the Canada Manpower Centre, and Barbara Heller, the LIP project officer for the area, will answer questions from interested applicants and distribute application forms.

Last year, no projects were approved in the Haliburton area because of a dearth of applications. The closest project funded was in Cobocok, Victoria County, where a new Legion Hall was built to encourage community activities.

LIP personnel are hoping that, with additional publicity and funding this year, Haliburton area residents will be encouraged to find out more about the program and send in their applications.

This is what Ontario is doing to stabilize the income of beef calf producers.

Every producer of beef calves in the province (including cream shippers) is eligible to participate in this program, which forms the first part of an overall Farm Income Stabilization policy. You can participate, by contracting to join the program for a five-year period and by paying an annual fee for every eligible beef cow you enroll in the program. Your Ontario government will also contribute to the program.

For 1975, your fee will be $5 per cow, however, for this year fees are deferred until payments to producers are made. The provincial government contracts to make a grant per cow to participating producers if the average market price for Ontario-produced stocker calves falls below the stabilized price of 50¢ per pound in 1975.

Payments will be made in December or as soon as possible thereafter.

The enrollment period for eligible producers in 1975 ends August 31.

Complete information on the program, as well as enrollment form and contracts, are available at your local office of the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food.

Your provincial government has recently established the Ontario Beef Calf Income Stabilization Program—a voluntary program designed to:

- stabilize the income of recognized beef calf producers in Ontario;
- encourage a continuing steady supply of Ontario-produced beef stocker calves.

It will establish a floor on the amount of money a producer may expect to receive in years of poor calf prices.

TRULY CHRISTIAN
Strange as it may seem, the average person and even Church member has a very hazy idea of what it means to be a Christian. Ask the passerby and the answer will be very much like that of the keen college graduate who was one day asked if he was a Christian. In quite some surprise he answered, "Why yes, I suppose so"! The inquirer smiled and asked a further question. "Why do you suppose? Don't you know"? He thought that over for a minute and then answered, "Why, yes I am a Christian. I must be since I am not a Mohammedan or a Buddhist!"

To his vague understanding, a Christian was an civilized person who did not profess some other faith or was not an adherent of one of the great world religions. When it was carefully explained to him what it meant to have Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour he listened in astonishment and deep interest, then exclaimed "That is the most wonderful idea I have ever listened to! Why don't they teach us that in college"?

This man's hazy misconception of what true faith and Christianity really is, shows itself in a multitude of ways among professing Christianity. Altogether too few can give an adequate description or definition of "Christian" in the sense in which the Bible uses that term. It was at Antioch where the disciples were called Christians for the first time, Acts 11:26. The word "Christian" then is aligned with the word disciples and is descriptive of them. What then and who is a disciple? A disciple is one who (1) follows a certain leader to the exclusion of all other influences; (2) studies faithfully and with complete acceptance of the teaching of that leader; (3) attempts to practise those teachings in such a fashion as to make his life conform to the life of the chosen leader. As one ponders the true sense that the world disciple means, it can be a real surprise to find that if such is descriptive of a Christian, how many fall short of it. One may rightfully ask, "Am I truly a disciple of Jesus"?

This Jesus, who appeared on earth as God the Son, taught as never man had taught before, He was winsome and confirmed His claims as the Saviour of the world with signs and wonders. Some people believed His teachings, grew hungry of heart to know Jehovah God as He presented Him and became the ardent followers of the One who taught them. They absorbed His teaching and sought to fully understand His will, yielded their lives in complete and absolute obedience to Him in all things. This little group became known as the followers of the "Way" or the "Nazarene". They were the one who proclaimed Jesus as the Christ, the Risen One, and the group enlarged itself, spreading abroad with the message of Salvation, Acts 11:19-22.

These were the ones who were called "Christian" by the onlookers, the disciples did not name themselves, Acts 11:26. By the same standard of discipleship can one rightly be called Christian and by no other. All who are saved and know it, who accept the "Deity of Jesus" and practise His way of life are His disciples and therefore Christians in the true sense of the world.

Scripture makes the way and life of Jesus plain but it is a self-sacrificing way of service, hence not too acceptable to the masses of our generation. But to those who truly know Him, it is the only way.

What a grand and happy world it would be, if all who are branded as Christians were in reality so in truth and deed. A Bible Christian is one who has experienced a new birth in his life, John 3:3; one who knows there is a difference in his life, Galatians 6:15; one who is in earnest to have God's will done in his life, Matthew 7:21 and one who is concerned that the "living message" is carried abroad. Such are true disciples of Jesus and worthy of the name Christian.

This Laughing Pilgrimage

"The story of Maude Anderson Finlay, Tory Hill, Ontario.
It is just edited by Nila Reynolds."

Local farmers used to bring their butter to the store in large rolls which we stored in the basement. When we accumulated quite an amount we sorted it as well as we could as to colour and quality and packed it in fifty pound boxes to be sold to the lumber camps in the fall. One year we sold a thousand pounds to one company at twenty cents a pound.

My sister was passing outside the cellar door from which issued the hilarious laughter of our terrible two. She stopped and was moved to investigate after calling me. We came upon the duo grabbing handfuls of butter and throwing it against the rough stone wall of the basement where it spread and splattered and stuck.

Talk about messes! That was the one to end all others. The two kids were smeared with it from foot to head and I scooped three pails of butter from the cellar walls besides what stuck to the floor. I had to use gallons of hot water and ammonia and a stiff brush before it came clean. It was a dirty job and a costly one for us since a lot of the butter was completely spoiled for anything but the pigs.

Here the account written by Elizabeth Maude Finlay when she was about 82 years old forever ended. She was developing problems with her vision and when the condition was somewhat corrected she chose to devote her leisure to handicrafts and needlework in which she excelled. From her nimble and gifted fingers grew a series of crocheted and knitted articles -- bedspreads table clothes and so on. Some of these were displayed at the Haliburton Highlands Guild of Fine Arts Summer Exhibitions. In 1973 her exquisite table cloth was displayed wrong side out and no one noticed the mistake until Mrs Finlay herself viewed the display.

Perhaps because she lost all her wedding gifts and personal treasures in the 1910 fire, in later years she became a collector of fine china. In a personal interview with Mrs Finlay in the fall of 1973 she told me how, during the years when her husband served as County Magistrate and she travelled with him through the area as his court stenographer, she would make it a point to visit the local stores to look for new pieces of fine china which caught her fancy. In this way she laid the foundations of the fantastic collection of cups and saucers of every shape, colour, size and description imaginable. At the time of her death, January 2nd, 1974, these numbered over 500.

Quite a number were imported from cities all over the world, countries like Sweden, Germany, Russia and Japan -- wherever the wandering feet of several generations of friends and relatives had taken them. Mrs Finlay could tell you the origin of every one.

Although the death of her husband, James Edmund Finlay, in 1955 was a bitter blow, she never retreated from life but took an active part in community affairs and an interest in the lives which touched her own. Never did she swerve from the political convictions of her father who kept the bust of Sir John A. MacDonald always near him. To the day of her death she remained a staunch supporter of the Conservative cause.

She was also an ardent fan of the Toronto Maple Leaf hockey team and admirer of the sports commentator, Foster Hewitt.

To Tory Hill she was ever loyal. The friendly rivalry which existed between her village and Wilberforce in the old days came back to her during a critical illness which made necessary a hurried ambulance trip to the hospital. Regaining consciousness on the way she inquired of her daughter-in-law, Mrs Margaret Finlay, "Where are they taking me?"

To the Haliburton hospital was the answer.

"Then its alright," answered the redoubtable Maude, "I was afraid they were taking me to Wilberforce!"

The Haliburton hospital did not keep her long; in less than a week she returned to her own home and the management of her affairs.

She left it for the last time for a Christmas visit to her daughter's home where a stroke stilled forever the beat of that gallant heart which had embarked so blithely on its "Laughing Pilgrimage."

Candles in the night

by Irene Stewart

Modern news media apparently consider anything worth passing along to the public should be bad news. Rarely do we hear or read of any of the nice things that, I'm sure, must be happening around us. One tires of being fed a constant diet of robberies, rape, abortion and murder, not to mention the high cost of living, political janglings, oil crises and such lengthy things as the Watergate scandal. Thank goodness the astronauts and cosmonauts have given us a welcome respite from sordid reading for a while. Whenever we hear any good news we feel our jaded spirits lifted as though we had been given a booster shot of geritol after a steady diet lacking the necessary vitamins and minerals. If good news travelled as fast as bad news I could have passed this little item of pleasant news on much sooner.

As many of you are aware, the United Church in Lochlin recently held its annual strawberry supper. Preparations were being made to feed between three and four hundred people. In hot weather this was a tedious task even when things went smoothly but, alas, a calamitous thing happened late on the Friday afternoon before the supper the next day. When the grocery truck arrived there were no berries on it, not even one box of berries which had been ordered. Imagine the plight the committees were in! Would they substitute some other food in place of the berries? Would they cancel the supper? No, they couldn't do that. Whatever would they do? One of the U.C. Ws came up with a brainwave. She suggested that they call the Robertsons who operate a pick-it-yourself fruit farm near Dunsford to explain their predicament and inquire whether they had enough berries to supply their need. On learning that Robertson could fill their order, the committee eagerly asked if they might drive down very early in the morning before the place was supposed to open to customers. Mr. Robertson replied, "You sure can but don't come in by the regular gate. Come along to a side gate where I'll meet you and to save time, I'll conduct you to a patch where you may pick all you need."

Imagine the sighs of relief the troubled committee breathed! After a quick conference, it was decided that ten people, seven U.C.Ws and three very willing U.C. men would leave Lochlin at six thirty in the morning to try to pick enough berries for the supper. On arrival at the farm they were met by Mr. Robertson who escorted them to rows of luscious red berries. In record time those ten industrious people picked one hundred and sixty boxes. Have you ever picked strawberries? If so you will know what a terrific backbreaking job it is. When most people go there to pick berries they do so for their own use. Remember, these diligent workers were picking them to help raise money for their church. Don't forget, they had to drive back home, clean the berries and themselves and get to the church to help with other preparations for the supper. There would be little time for their own tidying up or lunch or even a coffee break. By going to Dunsford those ten workers had to leave the chores they were appointed to do which put a heavier work load on the ones who were left at home. "By their works ye shall know them" was the motto all those church people were living by that day, believe me.

When the berry pickers had finished their task they gathered up their boxes preparing to be checked out at the usual exit. Weary and dusty, they were on the point of leaving when they were escorted by the Robertsons to a picnic table under a shady tree. Spread before them they saw places set for ten people. There were two kinds of muffins, fresh butter, homemade jams and jellies and quantities of hot coffee. It was indeed like manna from heaven. Surprise, pleasure and extreme gratefulness were registered on every face. When they got their breath to thank their kind hosts, Mr. Robertson explained, "We know that you folks were up very early and most likely didn't take time for much breakfast nor will you have time for much lunch by the time you get home, get those berries cleaned and get yourselves ready to help with the supper. Since it is for a good cause, we felt that we would like to help you along."

Each of those berry pickers left that farm with warm feelings of brotherly love and renewed faith in human nature. With all the selfish greed in the world, they felt that here were people who practised humane Christianity. Needless to say, the supper turned out to be a huge success. Almost four hundred hungry people were served what they went to get - a very good meal topped off with excellent fresh picked strawberries. The committees were more than satisfied with the results of their efforts to raise funds for the church. The Robertsons must have slept well that night knowing that peaceful feeling which comes from doing a kind and generous deed.

In the words of a hymn for children we find,

"Jesus bids us shine with a clear pure light
Like a little candle burning in the night.
In this world of darkness we must shine,
You in your small corner and I in mine."

Good work, Lochlin U. C.

W.s plus three! May the light from your small corner keep burning brightly. Its glow might remind us to trim our own wicks so that we, too, might shine a little more.

Hall's Lake news

One of our enterprising young Summer residents has suggested that we run a Swim-a-thon on Hall's Lake to help with the funds for the Paraplegic Bus which the residents of Hyland Crest Senior Citizens' Home are working so hard for. This is a good idea but would take some organizing and not too many people have time during the busy Summer months. We think the Firemen would be a driving force behind such a venture!

It took a properly-coded, properly-stamped letter dated in Hamilton from the 14th of July until the 24th of July to reach us. Usually a letter posted Sunday evening or Monday morning reaches us on Tuesday, from Hamilton. This one looked as though it had been on the floor of the Post Office or the Van and stepped on several times.

An unsigned letter sent to me complains of vandals entering St. Stephen's Church Yard and peeling the bark off the lovely white birch trees. Anyone with sense and an eye for beauty would never do such a thing and we trust will refrain in future.

Miss Lindsey Anderson, grand-daughter of the Murray McGuire's has flown for a five-week vacation to the Channel Islands, with relatives.

This coolish weather is sending a lot of people home and we trust Summer will not wane this early in the season. July was like an old-fashioned Summer, hot and humid, until recently.

Several more people are spending a vacation in England this year -- Mrs Mary Oliver is already there; Mr Albert Hart expects to leave in October, and Mrs Marjorie Ferguson will be leaving sometime in September.

The Johnson Family of Toronto are staying at Mr Walter Izzard's Summer residence.

Best wishes to Norman and Violet Wallace's daughter, Miss Dorothy Wallace, upon her forthcoming marriage on August 2nd. She has been teaching in Tillsonburg and is a graduate of Haliburton High and Guelph University.

Twenty-seven people turned out to early Communion at St. Stephen's on Sunday morning. The Rev. S.B. Hills returns to his own Parish Church in Hamilton next week to resume his duties after having July as his vacation. We are grateful to him for taking this Sunday morning service throughout July.

Some people find it very convenient to dump their household garbage wherever there is a container meant for small scraps of paper and pop bottles -- also they continue to clean out their dirty car ash trays in front of places of business. I wonder how they keep their own places?
